About Fine Art Lamps

The American factory Fine Art Lamps was founded by Jack Blumberg in 1941, although the history of family production dates back to the 19th century, when the founder's father, glazier Max Blumberg, created his first lamp. Today one of the largest lighting manufacturers in the US, the company offers over 80 handcrafted lighting collections, crafted by the finest teams of designers, designers, sculptors and decorators. Fine Art Lamps decorate the interiors of the most luxurious hotels around the world: Four Seasons and Bellagio in Las Vegas, Burj Al Arab in Dubai and many others.
